Get in on the Act!
The Breastfeeding etc (Scotland) Act 2005

Any person may feed a child* milk whenever required and wherever is best for the child without the fear of interruption or criticism.

*The act applies to a child two years or under.